Commercial solicitation means contact by telephone, mail or electronic mail for the purpose of selling or marketing a consumer product or service. Pursuant to Section 30-2-30(3), commercial solicitation does not include the following:

- Offering membership in a credit union;
- Notification of continuing education opportunities;
- Selling or marketing banking, insurance securities, or commodities services provided by an institution or entity defined in or required to comply with the Federal Gramm-Leach-Bliley Financial Modernization Act, 113 Stat. 1338; or
- Contacting persons for political purposes using information on file with state and local voter registration offices.

Any person who knowingly uses public records for commercial solicitation is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, must be fined an amount not to exceed five hundred dollars or imprisoned for a term not to exceed one year, or both.
